

Armchair

7049

Clearly designed in early 1920, the Lusty Lloyd Loom Model 7049 is a squared off version of the Model 6011. The seat is of dining chair height and, with its small foot print, this armchair has been used extensively by restaurant designers. This neat and tidy design retains all the comfort of our larger models but takes up less space.

Designed by Jim Lusty circa 1920.
